Subject: Refund for unperformed services at Formule 2 driving school
And follow-up of your course in another driving school

Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

You were identified as being a student who started a driving course in a school whose permit was revoked by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ). Indeed, your former driving school, Formule 2 driving school, was revoked on December 21st, 2017.

The Association québécoise des transports (AQTr) is mandated by the SAAQ to support students from suspended, revoked or closed driving schools in their process to transfer to another school. The AQTr will therefore provide students with a certificate (aka. attestation) to allow them to complete the driving course in another certified school and help students to get a refund for paid services that have not been delivered by the school.

You will therefore find enclosed to this letter the following documents: a memo describing the different steps to follow, a copy of the security contract and a sworn statement to sign.

Please do not take this letter into account if you are in any of the following situations: services rendered completely, or probationary license obtained.

The insurance company informed the AQTr that the bond is expiring on March 21st, 2018. So, you have until March 20th, 2019 to submit your request to the AQTr, you should do this as soon as possible.

Indeed, for you request to be complete and examined by the insurance company, you must provide the AQTr with a proof of payment for each payment you made to the school.

Also, be aware that you could be granted a lesser amount of money than submitted, since the driving school or the insurance company will determine the final amount to which they think you are entitled.

Furthermore, the AQTr would like to inform you that the present letter, as well as the enclosed documents – which are also available online at www.aqtr.com –, do not constitute a legal notice. If you wish to seek legal advice in this process, you should get in touch with a legal expert.

We hope that you found this information useful in order to transfer to another driving school.

Best regards,

SB/fp

STUDENT'S MEMOHow to get a refund for unperformed services?
How to resume your course in another driving school?

In order to help you in this process, the AQTr strongly recommends you to read the following information.

1. Procedure to follow to be granted a refund:

You can either send to us through email services.prec@aqtr.qc.ca the requested documents or by mail to this address: 6666, rue Saint-Urbain (office 470), Montréal (Québec), H2S 3H1. On that day, make sure to send along the following documents:

- A copy of the contract that you signed with the driving school;
- A copy of both sides of your learner's permit. If you have not got any yet, a copy of your medical insurance card will do;
- Any proof of payment you made to the driving school: i.e. cash withdrawals receipts, credit card statements, cheques copies, receipts, etc.;
- Any proof of your progress in the driving program.
Please note that if you disagree with what was written down on this sheet, you should add to the following document a letter listing the different modules as well as the various in-car practices that you think to have followed or completed. Try to describe precisely the differences between them so that the AQTr can consider your point of view and assess the situation;
- The sworn statement which you signed in front of a sworn assessor or can be signed in our office.

Regarding the sworn statement;

- First, fill in the document, completing all the required information (but without signing nor dating it);
- Then, go to any town hall or to any lawyers' office with the fully filled in document, where you will therefore sign and date the document in the presence of the attorney or a sworn assessor. You will still be able to do this free of charge at our office.

2. The refund process will take place in accordance with these 3 steps :

- The AQTr sends a final request to the driving school to pay for the amount of money that is due. If the school answers our request, the AQTr will provide you with the refund that you are granted.

- Indeed, if the AQTr's demand is rejected, the AQTr will send a collective indemnity request to the insurance company of the driving school (see copy of the security contract). The insurance company informed the AQTr that the bond is expiring on July 24th, 2019. You have until March 20th, 2019 to submit your request to the AQTr, you should do this as soon as possible. Afterwards, once the AQTr receives the security from the Insurance Company, will send you a reimbursement cheque. However, keep in mind that due to the various delays described above, it could be possible that no cheque would be issued before July 1st, 2019. Also, be aware that you could be granted a lesser amount of money than submitted.
- If by any chance, you are not provided with any refund, neither by the driving school nor by its insurance company, by the end of this process, you should ask for legal aid to the Small Claims Division Court of Quebec.

You will find all the useful information that you need at:

<http://www.justice.gouv.qc.ca/english/publications/generale/creance-a.htm>

On this website, you will also be able to access simplified documents to make a request for Small Claims.

You might as well seek help to the Court in Quebec in person or by phone:

Important: this information does not constitute a legal notice. If you wish to seek legal advice in this process, you should get in touch with a legal expert.

3. Steps to follow to resume your driving course in any other certified driving school

To follow up your training in any other AQTr certified driving school, you would need to show the certificate (also commonly known as "attestation") illustrating the various theory modules and/or in-car sessions that you have already taken at your previous school.

If you have not received the attestation yet and that you were part of a school that was suspended, revoked or closed, you will receive one from the AQTr.

In order for the AQTr to provide you with an attestation, please send all the documents mentioned above (page 1) by email to services.prec@aqtr.com or by mail to 6666, rue Saint-Urbain (office 470), Montréal (Québec), H2S 3H1.

Once you have received the driving course attestation, here is what you should do:

- Go online and have a look at the list of the AQTr certified driving school located in your area : www.aqtr.com
- Go and enrol at a new driving school with the attestation from the AQTr. This paper will allow you to resume your course, since the driving school will be able to check exactly which theory or practical classes you still have to attend;
- Once you have succeeded the whole driving training, you will get another attestation from this driving school;
- Remember to bring along both attestations (i.e. the one from the AQTr and the one from the 2nd driving school) when you go to the SAAQ to take the final road test. Also, have at hand the letter for the RSEP form the AQTr.
